Polish the Light

by Dale W Reiger

You have to write clearly
So that no one understands.

You have to write openly
As the wind to the sand.

You have to write clearly
So the words can be bright.

You have to write wildly
To shine and polish
The Light.

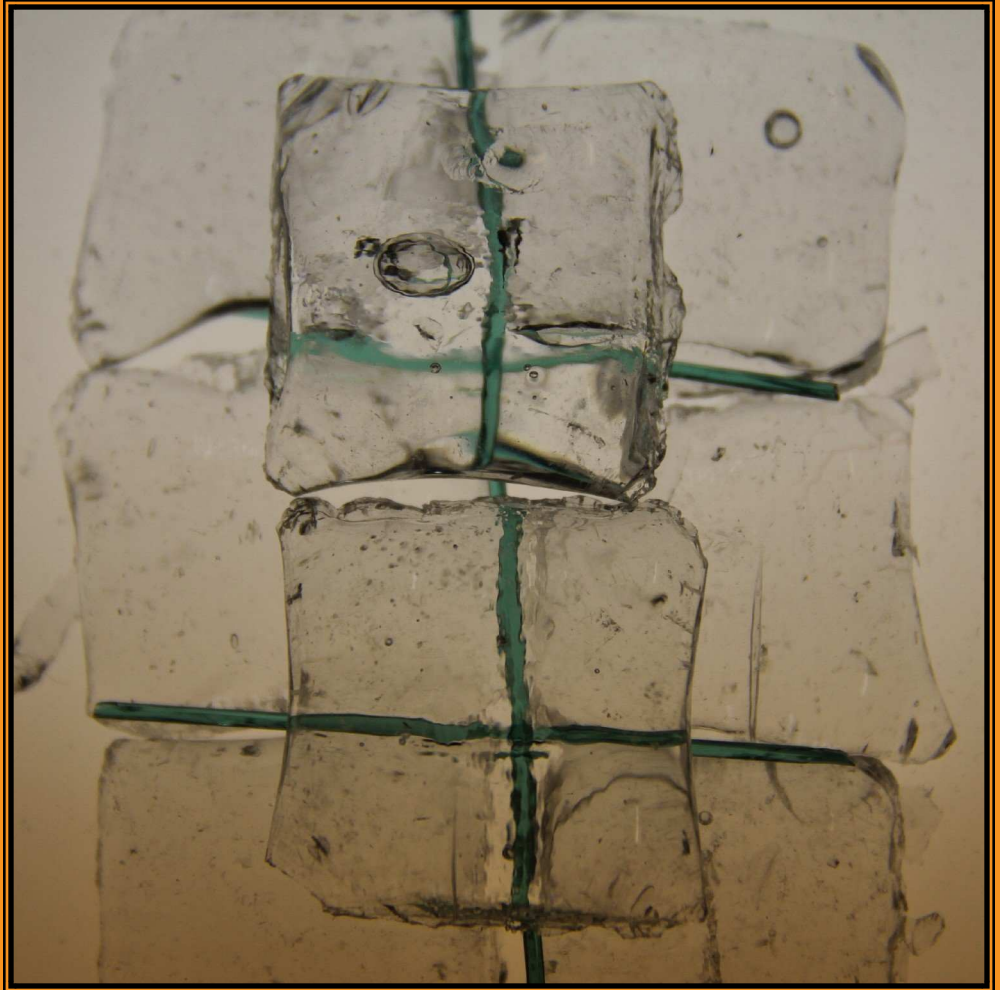

The Edge

Not knowing is sitting on the Edge of Mystery.

It is being in the knowing
And the not knowing
That breeds knowledge...
That allows the unknown
To surface from the mire
and become the seeds of wisdom.

Dale W Reiger: kiln formed glass & abstract paintings

"Kiln formed glass combines high temperatures with the heat of creativity. The results are magical & mysterious, oftentimes a lava-like palette of color and luminescence." Dale W Reiger
