This brief portrayal of images is one aspect of the creative spirit

I have been fortunate to experience.

This journey has been challenging and rewarding.

Many of my family and friends have encouraged me to stay the course. My son, Matt, has been a true light.

Beyond what we often measure as success in life, my passion for making things, alongside an appreciation for wonderful people and possibilities,

I have found an extraordinary life with my partner & husband,

Dale W Reiger.

It is especially for him that joy, love and inspiration are infused in my ever evolving work.
